

Receive the Word or Ride the Wave.

a person who doubts is like a wave blown by wind and tossed by the sea (Js. 1:6)

"When you don't have a Word

A Word: can be anything that causes you to have faith and hope.

A Wave: can be anything that causes you to lose heart and doubt.

Jesus being tempted

The followers regarding the Resurrection

1. A "Word" is solid. A "Wave" is liquid.

2. A "Word" will give you stability and security. A "Wave" will toss you to and fro and to you up and down.

3. A "Word" will settle in your spirit. A "Wave" will leave you unsettled.

4. A "Word" will strengthen your spirit and bring peace and serenity. A "Wave" will cause turmoil and crash your emotions.

5. A "Word" gives you something to hold on to. A "Wave" will leave you grasping at anything and everything.

6. A "Word" is an anchor and an answer. A "Wave" is something you can't grasp or hold onto.

7. A "Word" is something that stays. A "Wave" is something that comes and goes.

8. A "Word" creates boundaries. A "Wave" tries to surpass boundaries.

9. A "Word" can be beautiful but is beneficial. A "Wave" is beautiful but can be brutal.

10. Only God can establish a "Word." Only God can abolish a "Wave."
